SUMMER READING FOR STUDENTS ENTERING 2ND GRADE

Suggested Reading

Series/Titles
- Young Cam Jansen Series by David Adler
- The Hello Goodbye Window by Norton Juster
- The Very Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle
- Biscuit by Alyssa Satin Capucilli
- Goodnight Moon by Margaret Wise Brown
- The Dragon Series by Dav Pilkey
- Froggy Learns to Swim by Jonathan London
- Green Eggs and Ham by Dr. Seuss

Authors for Families to Read Together
- Gail Gibbons
- Dan Gutman
- Seymour Simon
- David Wiesner
- Matt Christopher
- Amy Krouse Rosenthal
- Annie Barrows
- Debby Dadey
- Hilary McKay
- Mercer Mayer
- Marc Brown
- Edward Marshall
- Cynthia Rylant

The Importance of Summer Reading

Research shows that children who don’t read over the summer, especially young students and struggling readers, can lose up to three months of learning in just one summer.

There are easy steps to take to avoid summer regression in literacy. Reading just a few books this summer, visiting the local library, and insisting that children make time for reading can curb the summer slide.