

Readington Tewksbury Junior Baseball League Celebrates 70 Seasons of Community Sports

The Readington Tewksbury Junior Baseball League (RTJBL) is gearing up for an exciting milestone season, marking its 70th year of providing youth baseball opportunities to local children.

Registration is now open for boys and girls of Readington and Tewksbury Townships ages 4-18 through the league's website, www.rtjbl.com. The upcoming 2025 season promises comprehensive programming for young athletes, with practices scheduled to begin in late March with the season concluding in early June.

REGISTRATION CLOSES JANUARY 15 (except for Babe Ruth 16-18)

Divisions and Opportunities

The league will offer instructional clinics and game play for multiple age groups, including:

Little Sluggers (pre-K and Kindergarten)	Major 60 (fourth and fifth grade)
Rookie 1 (first grade)	Major 70 (fifth and sixth grade)
Rookie 2 (second grade)	Babe Ruth 13-15 years old
Minors (third and fourth grade)	Babe Ruth 16-18 years old

Accessibility and Support

RTJBL remains committed to making baseball accessible to all local youth. The organization offers:

- Flexible payment plans
- Financial assistance for qualifying families

As a nonprofit organization, RTJBL operates independently of township funding, relying on registration fees and local business sponsorships. The league is actively seeking parent volunteers for coaching and support roles.

Get Involved

Interested families can:

- Visit www.rtjbl.com
- Email rtjblinfo@gmail.com for more information
- Register young athletes for the upcoming season

For more details about registration, divisions, and volunteer opportunities, visit the league's website or contact the organization directly.