

Whitehouse Wind Symphony

The Whitehouse Wind Symphony, a community band under the direction of Branchburg resident James P. Sheeley, Jr. will present a free concert inside the air-conditioned sanctuary of Whitehouse United Methodist Church (73 Old Highway 28, Whitehouse, NJ 08888) at 3:00pm on Saturday, June 25, 2022. The program will feature a range of selections that includes traditional marches, patriotic tunes, selections from musical theater, jazz, and classical selections! The band is excited to return to its namesake/rehearsal venue to close its 2021-2022 season.

The concert is free and open to the general public, although donations will be accepted to benefit the band, a non-profit group comprised entirely of volunteer musicians. Face masks for protection against COVID-19 are recommended, but not required. Attendance is at one's own risk; discretion is advised, especially for those at high-risk for infection for COVID-19. In the event of dangerous travel conditions or public health emergency, the decision to cancel this concert will be announced on the band's website (whitehousewindsymphony.org), Facebook page (facebook.com/whitehousewind), and Instagram feed (instagram.com/whitehousewind).

The Whitehouse Wind Symphony is committed to making music accessible to all.

Parking is located behind the church and on the street. WUMC is fully wheelchair accessible via the elevator at the west entrance of the building. For information about venue accessibility, please send an email to whitehousewindsymphony@gmail.com, or call the band's ADA coordinator, Margaret Smith, at 908-534-6662.

The Whitehouse Wind Symphony was founded in 1996. It is dedicated to presenting the best in all varieties of wind band literature. Since its founding, the band has grown rapidly, attracting experienced musicians as regular members from all over New Jersey, as well as New York City and eastern Pennsylvania. It is now comprised of approximately 50 amateur and professional musicians who perform together regularly to enthusiastic audiences throughout central and northern New Jersey. The band was recently named the winner of the 2022 Hunterdon Happening List in the category of favorite band/musician!

Funding has been made possible in part by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, through funds administered by the Hunterdon County Cultural & Heritage Commission
