Fairness: agreeing with what is thought to be right or acceptable; treating people in a way that does not favor some over others; not too harsh or critical.

I am a bucket filler and I demonstrate good character when I am fair. Some examples of how I can show fairness include:

- I share my toys with family and friends.
- I play with everyone in my classroom.
- I take turns on the playground.
- I play by the rules and I am a good sport during a game.
- I accept diversity among others.
