

WHO WE ARE

The H.S.A. is Readington School District's parent teacher organization. It is a non-profit organization developed to foster effective communication between the parents and staff of the Readington Township Schools and to enhance the social and educational benefits our children receive in the school district. The H.S.A. is able to function independently and be totally responsive to the individuals with the greatest interest in its work: the parents, staff and students of the Readington Township Schools.

MISSION

- Promote welfare of children
- Bring home and school together
- Unite efforts for the best education
- Cooperate with schools

WHAT WE DO

- A variety of Cultural Arts programs designed for all grade levels
- School-based educational and social activities
- Scholarships for former students of the Readington Township Schools
- Funding and/or books to our schools' libraries
- Mini-Grants to assist our staff with funding for special academic programs and student projects
- Staff Appreciation activities and events
- Provide Homeroom Representatives to elementary classrooms.

STAY INFORMED

The H.S.A. communicates with our school community using the schools' weekly Genesis blasts, through Homeroom Representatives, and using our online platform called PTBoard. PTBoard hosts our online student directory, calendar, and announcements for activities and events for all schools.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Our main fundraiser is called "Invest in Your Child." As an Investor, not only are you supporting the staff and students of Readington by helping the H.S.A. provide activities and services, but also each family gains access to our online Student Directory and can vote in the elections as well as become an Officer or Chairperson of the H.S.A.
