Responsibility: a duty or task that you are required or expected to do; something that you should do because it is morally right or legally required.

I am a bucket filler and I demonstrate good character when I am responsible. Some examples of how I can show responsibility include:

- I follow the rules at home, in school, and out in the community.
- I take care of my belongings and respect the property of others.
- I remember to be prepared each day when I leave for school (e.g., homework, backpack, lunch, snack, money, sneakers, recorder, etc.)
- I try my best and never give up on projects or tasks that I am given.
- I remember to help my parents, teachers, and friends.
