To connect to a Infocus LiteShow connected projector:

- 1 Click the Infocus LiteShow Icon on your desktop
- 2 Click Connect to Projector

- 3 Click other projector not listed here
- 4 Click connect

5 Type the Host Name (e.g. rms-208) of the room you want to project to (List of host names attached to end of this document)

6 Check the "Save as shortcut in projector list" button to create a favorite link for easy access to the unit next time you need to connect. Click Connect.

🐙 Lite	Show Manager	X
	INFOCUS
🐙 Connect to Projector	×
Select the adapter nam	ie shown by the projector, then click Connect.
Other projector not listed here 3 Connect 🚣 rms-307
* rms-411	Connect to Other Projector
🗚 mscaf	Choose how to connect:
	 Local area connection to "Adapter host name" (preferred) Local area connection to "Adapter IP address"
	Connection instructions
Default: none	Enter the "Adapter host name" shown by the projector, then click Connect. Host name:
	Connect Cancel Help

7 Click Start Projecting and the image on your tablet/laptop will also appear on projector screen

Note:

- You may need to click the "Auto Sync" button on the projector remote if the image is fuzzy on the screen
- If prompted with an option to Resize You Screen after you click the Start Projecting button Select Yes